

Portable Co-Extruders

Beier manufactures a wide variety of co-extruders. Each co-extruder is configured for a specific application. Most are portable and come with adjustable center-line height adjustment. Most come with adjustable center-line height adjustment. Screw diameters, L/D ratios and drives are based on the materials to be processed and throughput requirements. Co-extruders come with UL/CSA compliant electrical components.

